21 Spiritual Lessons for the 21st Century,
by Laxmi Dady, and Laurent Weichberger
(Asheville: OmPoint Press, Fall 2023)

A guide for millennials and Gen-Zers to connect with the divine. It can serve as an access point for anyone looking to deepen their life. It is written from two very different perspectives: a “wild woman” millennial and a middle-aged Gen-X father. Both authors have extraordinary respect for the other’s spiritual path and share lessons from their direct experiences. Through twenty-one spiritual themes, Laxmi and Laurent break down some milestones of spiritual life and highlight how to live them out in this fast-paced, technology-forward world.

Named after the Goddess of Abundance, Laxmi is a first-generation American of East Indian, Guyanese, and German descent. She’s got a knack for breaking down the complexities of life into bite-sized pieces and has helped countless individuals during her fifteen years in the personal growth field. When she is not world traveling with her rescue dog, Pancho, she consults business owners on process improvement and leads sales teams to success with her company, (B)Free.

Laurent found his Spiritual Master, Meher Baba, at the young age of seventeen in New York. He has spent the last four decades deepening his connection with the Divine. He is a father, an accomplished author of spiritual books, and facilitates no-cost seminars on topics such as forgiveness and surrender. Laurent works as a Principal Customer Advisory Director specializing in Data Quality, at a multinational software company. He lives with his wife and family in Asheville, North Carolina where he remains deeply involved in the Meher Baba community.
